NO. 103.

The discovery by the inhabitants of a locality hitherto unvisited by the ilent scourge of fever and ague, hat it exists in their very midst, is decidedly startling. Such discoveries are made at every season, in every part of the Union. Consequently, when it is ascertained, as it invariably is at such times, through the valuable experience of some one who has been benefited and cured, that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a thoroughly efficacious eradicator of the maiarial poison, and a means of fortifying the system against it, a feeling of more security and tranquillity reigns throughout the whole neighborhood. Besides the februle forms of maiarial disease, dumb ague and ague cake are removed by the potent action of the Bitters, to which science also gives its sanction as a remedy for rheumatism, dyspersia, constipation, liver complaint, debility, kidney troubles, and all diseases impairing the organs of digestion and assimilation. dly startling. Such discoveries

Is Consumption Incurable?
Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with Abscess of Lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; am now on my third bottle, and am able to oversee the work on my farm. It the finest medicine ever made."

Jesse Middlewart, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died from lung troubles. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try It. Sample bottle free at Hodgkinson & Co's, drug store.

Unnecessary Risery.

Probably as much misery comes from abi-ual constipation as from any desargement of the functions of the body and it is difficult to cure, for the reason one likes to take the medicines ust lip preserved. ever invented. A word to stockmen that are anxious to sell out at any price:

If your income is too big, an investment in fancy stock will reduce it pretty fast.

The man that knows the least about live stock is always most anxious to tell all he knows.

Ignorance may be helped, but gnorance and conceit are impregnable to any logic save force.

The strength of a lasso lies in its elasticity, and many a man conquers by knowing just when to

An honest stockman is a public benefactor, but a speculator rarely benefits anybody and is a bad example to all.

A sharp knife on the calf's "nubs" this Spring will save a saw on his horns next year, if you believe in dehorning.

If the barbed wire manufacturers were obliged to pay for all the live stock their productions have killed or maimed, they wouldn't be worth as much money as they are, but the granger would be worth considerably more.

Legitimate investments may not pay so big a rate of interest at the start as the other kind, but they pay it enough longer to more than make it up.

The two men that knew all about horses have gone out of the business. One is in the hospital for repairs and the other is in the lunatic asylum for life.

The waste of grazing lies in the animal's ruining more with its feet than it eats with its mouth. A man would hardly throw grain on the ground when feeding it to stock, yet many fail to understand why there should be any profit in cutting forage plants, instead of allowing cattle to trample and destroy two-thirds of their food.

A Burdensome Tax. The national tax which is now collected for the slauguter of horned cattle in the State of Colombia, South America, has been sold for the enormous sum of $177,490. Last year slaughtermen in Panama had to pay the tax monopolist $4 per head. This year he is entitled to collect $8 in silver, which is more than the value of a bullock in many countries. In other parts of Colombia this tax is only collected at the rate of $3 for male animals and $2 for cows and heifers, and there it is paid in paper money. As a natural consequence of this ordinance the butchers have raised their prices. If beef be taxed the consumers and not the butchers are those who must necessarily pay. This means to say that a new tax falls upon consumers, who regretfully pay the 30 cents a pound now charged, as against the 25 cents at which it stood last month.

Cattlemen will do well to remember that the thousands of cows that have gone to market the past year will be out of the producing ranks. Also that the thousands of yearlings and two-year-olds, which have been shipped in half-fat will not be on hand as competitors in 1888 or 1889. Taking both of these facts together (if for no other reason), the outlook for the cattle trade is promising. We confidently expect to see a medium - sized "boom" inside of two years that will astonish the natives.—[Breed-

GROVES OF MAMMOTH OAKS OF SURPASSING BEAUTY

Best of Soils for Oranges, Lemons, Figs, Peaches, Cherries, and all Tropical and other Fruits.

O BONITO COLONY LANDS ARE LOCATED IN BUTTE COUNTY California, and along the prettiest part of Feather River. They are about eight miles south of Oroville, three miles from Gridley, and two miles from Biggs, on the Oregon and California Railroad, and seventy-three miles from Sacramento. There are growing on the lands white oak trees, some of which are thirty-five feet in circumference. The soil is a rich, sandy loam, and cannot be surpassed in productiveness. Citrus and all kinds of deciduous fruits ripen here to perfection. Rio Bonito Colony Lands are a garden spot, and are certain to be the most popular for homes of any to be found in Central California.

I have been over your tract of land on the Feather River a hundred times. There is no better land and no better w. A. Shipper, Nelson.

My orange trees on land within a mile of yours have done magnificently. They began bearing the third year from planting, and are now hanging full of splendid golden fruit. THOS. HUTCHINS, Gridley.

I cannot speak too highly of the merits of your soil; none better in the State for stone fruits. The oranges now growing in my front yard are of as fine flavor and the trees of as thrifty growth as I have ever seen anywhere. JOHN S. HUTCHINS.

If your land were in fruit bearing trees, the land would be worth and would pay a good interest on an investment of $500 per acre. Our orchard of 75 acres adjoining your place, this year yielded at the rate of $300 per acre.

JOHN C. GRAY, Oroville,

JAS. HENNIGER, Gridley,

Executors Hilger's Estate.

On such land as yours, all kinds of fruit do well. A test of 75 of my apple trees showed a yield last year at the rate of 1,000 per acre. There has not been even one failure of my apple crop in 30 years. PHILLIP HEFFER, Central House.

My orchard is 27 years old, and adjoining your land which is exactly the same as mine. The net average yield per acre, without irrigation, has been not less than $200 per annum. I have not lost a fruit crop in 27 years from front or any other cause. frost or any other car

A body of land as valuable and well adapted for all purposes of agriculture, especially fruit raising, as any land known to me.

G. K. SMITH,
Banker, Biggs.

I know the great capabilities of your place as a fruit ranch. In five years after planting, that land in olives would yield fully $300 per acre in oil, and will increase year after year until its annual yield will exceed $500.

JOHN C. GRAY, Dist. Att'y.

This section of Butte County is one of the best in California for fruit culture. Such land as this, if set out to fruits, would, at the end of three years, it is estimated, be worth at least $500 per acre. At this rate, twenty acres in fruit within three years would be worth $10,000. The managers will take charge of the setting out of fruit trees for purchasers of land, and at the actual

THURSDAY FEBRUARY 2, 1888

TEXAS has good reason to congratulate herself upon the strikingly healthy and creditable showing which her Comptroller makes as to her financial condition and prospects. It appears that during the fiscal year ending August 31, 1887, there was an excess of $326,000 in receipts over expenditures, and that there is now a cash surplus of more than $1,000,000 in the treasury. In other words, the State is so situated that it can reduce taxes instead of increasing them, and yet carry on the public improvements which its growth demands, and make ample provision for all the ordinary necessities of government. There is no Southern State which can boast of such a successful management of its business affairs, and there is no other Southern State which is in every respect so prosperous and so enterprising. It is in the power of every Southern State to do what Texas has done and is doing in the way of developing local resources and increasing the volume and profit of local industries. There is nothing mysterious in the case. The secret of success is an open one, and the opportunities are just as good elsewhere as they are in Texas to overcome the misfortunes of the war and inaugurate an era of sound and satisfactory prosperity. It is only necessary to go to work in an intelligent, energetic and liberal way, with a proper recognition of facts as the really exist, and in a spirit of due contempt for worn-out business theories and traditions. Texas thrives because she bas sense enough to see that it does not pay to cling obstinately to old notions of industry and commerce simply on account of their age. She does not allow her prejudices to govern her operations against the plain teachings of practical every-day wisdom. Her doors are hospitality thrown open to new-comers, and capital is encouraged to buy her lands and help to increase her pro-

The Bellicose Disposition of British Admiral.

OTTAWA, Feb. 1.-Admiral Henage, who has assumed command of the British fleet in the Pacific, has, in his report to the British Government. drawn attention to the insufficiency and weakness of the squadron on the Pacific Coast. As a result it is reported here that the Imperial Government has feeded to add several vessels to the Admiral's command. His orders for the coming season, includes one to keep a sharp lookout to see that the rights of British sealing vessels in Behring sea are not interfered with in the future. When here the Admiral said that if he had been in command of the squadron when several Canadran schooners were seized by the United States Cutter Corwin last year, he would have given the Yaukee cruiser a sample of what British justice was. The Admiral is said to be a hothesded old sailor and it would surprise no one here to learn that he had got Great Britain into some sort of squabble before the Summer is over. drawn attention to the insufficiency of squabble before the Summer is over.

A Train Robber Confesses. St. Louis, Feb. 2.—At the preliminary examination of L. W. Breck and Tim Burrows at Texarkana, Brock made a confession of the train robbery at Genoa, December 9th. He says Jim and Rube Burrows caused the engineer to bring the train to a stop, and under to oring the train to a stop, and under the instructions of Rube Burrows, leader of the gang, he entered the express car and there met three men who he intimidated with a six-shooter, and handing a bag to one of them compelled him to put the money and the contents of the safe in the bag. He put about $2,600 in money and $6,000 worth of other valuables in the bag. The three of them started on foot for Texarkana, and on the way divided the booty, his share being about $800. Fireman J. S. Croven recognized Burrows as the robber whose mask slipped off as he entered the enginecab. Both men were bound over in $7,500 bail. Burrows waived examination.

Distribution of the Surplus.

EDITOR GAZETTE: That which was policy for the original thirteen sparsely populated, feeble States, with few people, small wealth, little or no internal commerce, and no manufactures, must be expanded to fit a nation of thirty-eight States and ix populous and wealthy Territories, really equal to forty-four States, with sixty millions of people and fifty billions of wealth, increasing a million a year in population and more than a billion per annum in property. Originally the paramount object of the tariff was to protect investments in manufacturing plants in our country against the tyranny of capital similarly invested in European States. When that protection has been most discreetly extended our national prosperity has been the greatest, and under the Morrill tariff our prosperity has been phenomenal, inaugurating and building up industries before unknown to our people, notably the manufacture of steel. In about the year 1863 there was not a steel plant in the United States. To-day we lead the world in the manufacture of steel, and having more steel we have cheaper steel than any other people.

Cotton fabrics are cheaper in New York than they are in Manchester, England, while our tariff on cotton goods is nearly equal to the value of the fabrics. All other protested pursuits have been simiprosperity has been the greatest, protected pursuits have been simiprotected pursuits have been similarly promoted until we have became the largest producing and manufacturing nation in the world, while in ratio of population and production we are the smallest shipping distributing nation.

WHAT IS OUR REMEDY? Shall we stop development, stop production and manufacture, and lay labor idle or shall we inaugurate lay labor idle or shall we inaugurate a policy commensurate with the power, skill, intelligence, population and wealth of the nation and in furtherance and promotion of the general welfare? What do we need? Clearly a current, active distribution of our surplus productions of soil, mine and manufacture all the nations of the world. to all the nations of the world. A policy that will put in motion every reaper, every shuttle and every loom and set aglow every furnace. How? By paying a tonnage premium for American ships built by American men out of American material and manned by American seamen and employed in deporting and distributing our sur-plus productions and manufactures to all the markets of the world.

The source of our great revenue, the tariff tax, is invisible and fails upon all, so a policy to pay a ton-nage prendum for American ship-ping to deport and market the sur-plus in the marts of the world would reach every avocation and stimulate every pursuit in our broad land and enable every person to make a good day's work for him-self, and that makes general pros-p-rity and insures the general wel-fare. Then let us keep up the pro-tection of our national industries. tection of our national industries. develop our great resources and supply the nations of the world and pay out currently the accruing revenue, promoting such distribu-tion and promoting the general welfare. A Modoe County Yarn The following improbable yarn appears in the Bieber (Cal.) Tribune its author being a resident of Dry Lake, Modoc county, Cal .:

On the 9th of January, as two vaqueros were hunting horses about five miles east of Dry Lake, they observed steam issuing from a crevice in the lava. On examining they discovered a cave, which they explored for some distance, but it explored for some distance, but it was so dark they could not see to walk. On the following day, after supplying themselves with candles, they penetrated the lower regions for about two miles or more, at a descent of about for inches to the rod. The roof seems to be of solid lava. The floor is yellow sand, and about one mile from the entrance there is a large room ten or twelve feet high and sixty feet across, and the main cavern turns and runs in a northerly direction, and another the main cavern turns and runs in a northerly direction, and another runs east, or nearly so. The north extension has a temperature of about 90 degrees and grows warmer every step, and the descent grows steeperas far as it has been explored. As the candle grew short the ex-plorers were compelled to return to the outer world and leave the won-derful cavern maxilored for the derful cavern unexplored for the

We are sorry to note the illness of Mr. Smith, of Bishop Creek, California, who is here with his daughter, Mrs. J. M. Dormer, having come to Carson expecting a change of climate would be bene-ficial, and aid in his recovery. We hope the trial will result in his complete return of health.

The route from Milfor i will deviate somewhat from that outlined in the report made two months ago, which started from Black Rock Station instead of Milford. But in crossing Nevada the old route will be followed in many places. The grades look easy and the passes to climb moderately high, as the country is rolling rather than mountainous. The line is not to run zigzag so as to take in is not to run zigzag so as to take in all the mining camps possible, but in just as direct a line to Los Au-geles as the country allows. The geles as the country allows. The road is to be an important part of a transcontinental system, with passenger trains running through between Los Angeles and Omaha, and it must therefore be straight. But the mining camps are not to be neglected. Wherever business will warrant it, spur tracks are to run from the main line to the camps.

from the main line to the camps, thus bringing large areas of valuable mining country within easy reach of the Salt Lake smelters. Bishop Sharp thinks that the surveyors will be through in three months, but it must be perhaps two or three years before the first trainruns through from Omaha over the new line.

The Bishop justly congratulates himself upon his success. Time and again he has labored with Mr. Adams to extend the Southern, but Adams to extend the Southern, but the latter teing taken up with the road's controversy with the Government, and knowing little or nothing of Nevada, nothing up to this time has been done. But when Bishop Sharp made his last trip, he found President Adams elated over the special Commission report and the road's hopeful financial outlook. So he was more ready to listen than So he was more ready to listen than ever before, and his distinguished visitor was able to convince him of the big future in store for the road that should strike southwest from did not care to give anything for publication. However, the interviewer could see he was not overburdened by faith in the scheme, especi lly after the singular actions in New York and San Francisco of representatives of the road and in New York and San Francisco of representatives of the road, and which the San Francisco papers have referred to in one instance particularly. But he did have and has long had unlimited fatth in the fact that the road running from this city into Southern California is destined to do an enormous business. The Bishop spoke highly of Judge Goodwin's efforts to further this, and regretted that President.

this, and regretted that President Adams had not long ago such a knowledge of Nevada as the Tribune's editor-in-chief, as then be would have pushed the now assured extension long ere this.

CALL AND BE CONVINCED.

A Warning to Ranchmen.

Kansas City Live Stock Record.]
Rangemen have had little to say about their cattle since the severe cold weather set in two weeks ago. As "silence gives consent" the poor brutes are doubtless suffering terribly and thousands before this have yielded to the merciless ice and snow, and found relief from their sufferings in the cold embrace of death. Ask a ranchman how his cattle are getting on and he will tell you never better at this time of year, or, all right when he last heard. Now we do not wish to accuse any of our ranch friends of intentionally perverting the truth, but to ask us to believe such statements in the face of two weeks of the hardest Winter weather for a quarter of a century, is taxing our credulity too much. In the days of open ranges and lightly stocked ranges, such weather as HAVE that your preparations are meeting we have had since January 5th with large sales. we have had since January 5th, meant 15 to 20 per cent loss; and now with every range overstocked, and half the cattle inclosed with wire fences, the poor creatures are compelled to stand their ground and perish. If the truth is ever known, the loss this Winter must be something terrible. The ground has been covered with snow nearly ever since the opening of the new year, and many of the shallow water places frozen to the bottom. With no food and drink there could be but one result, death. Even the buffalo, a native of the plains, would perish under the hardships is prepared only by the ABIETINE MEDIimposed upon most cattle on the range now-a-days, for they used to have the freedom of the boundless west and could and did drift before the storms, but the cattle are shut off from this means of escape from a pitiless storm. The ranch business was always cruel, even in its best days, and now especially so. To compel cattle to stand on the open plains without food or drink such weather as we have been having shows a want of feeling that is hard for many to understand. But these men are being paid for their cupidity. The northwestern ranges, this Winter must be decimated, and men that counted themselves rich in cattle last Fall are now seeing tleir fortunes disappear in dead carcasses on every hill. This is a sad and unfortunate state of affairs, both on the score of misfortune and cruelty. With such vicissitudes it is not surprising that the ranch business has a "black eye."

It looks as if these heavy losses were a warning from heaven that It looks as if these heavy losses
